DU Mourning Day Oct 15

The University of Dhaka will observe Mourning Day on October 15 to pay homage to the victims of Jagannath Hall tragedy that occurred three years ago, reports BSS.

The university has chalked out a day-long programme to observe the day in a befitting manner.

The programmes include hoisting of national flag atop all halls and main buildings and hoisting of the University flag at half mast wearing of black badges, a mourning procession of teachers, students, officers and employees from Aparajaya Bangla to Jagannath Hall at 6.30 am, placing of wreaths at the victims' memorial, prayer of Hindus, Buddhists and Christians at hall premises from 8 am, blood donation and discussion.

A special prayer will be held at Dhaka University central mosque after Asr prayer. A photo exhibition of the victims will be held from 9 am to 6 pm on the day.
