

Four RU teachers get UGC award

RU Correspondent

FOUR teachers of Rajshahi University have received University Grants Commission Award-2014-15, in recognition of their fundamental and innovative research works.

President Abdul Hamid handed over the awards to them at a programme at Osmani Memorial Auditorium in Dhaka on Wednesday.

The award recipients are music department Professor Asit Ray, public administration department Professor Pranab Kumar Panday, folklore department Professor Mobarra Siddika and botany department Associate Professor Ahmad Humayon Kabir.

Professor Asit Ray received the award for his research article Riturag in Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali, professor Pranab Kumar Panday for his research article on Women's Political Participation in Bangladesh: Role of Women's Organisations and professor Mobarra Siddika for his article on Gender in Bengali Lokakhyana: Tradition and Patriarchal and Associate Professor Ahmad Humayon Kabir for his article on Mechanisms Associated with Differential Tolerance to Fe Deficiency in Okra.