

DEATH OF RU STUDENT

Roommate on 4-day remand

RU Correspondent

A RAJSHAHI court on Wednesday put Monirul Islam, roommate of Rajshahi University student Motaleb Hossain Lipu who was murdered recently, on a four-day remand.

Rajshahi metropolitan magistrate Mokseda Asgar granted the order after he was produced before the court with a seven-day remand prayer, said Ashok Chawhan, officer-in-charge of the Motihar Police Station and also the investigation officer of the case.

Monirul, a second year botany student of the university, was shown arrested in the case on Sunday, after three days' interrogation in police custody.

Ashok Chawhan said that in the primary investigation they found Monirul's involvement in the murder incident.

On October 20, Motaleb Hossain Lipu, a second year student of RU mass communication and journalism department, was found dead in a drain near the dining of Nawab Abdul Latif Hall.

Lipu's uncle Bashir Mollah filed a murder case with the Motihar police on the same day accusing unnamed people.

The police arrested two guards of the hall and two students of the university, including Lipu's roommate Monirul Islam, for interrogation.

However, police released the rest three, including Lipu's friend Dilip Ray, after the primary interrogation.
