

RU economics dept celebrates diamond jubilee

RU Correspondent

ECONOMICS department of Rajshahi University celebrated its diamond jubilee amid great enthusiasm and festivity on the campus on Friday.

Marking the day, present and former students, teachers and staff of the department brought out a colorful rally in the morning that paraded the whole campus.

Later, a programme was held at the university's Kazi Nazrul Islam auditorium in the evening.

Bangladesh Bank governor Atiur Rahman attended the programme as the chief guest.

While delivering his speech, the BB head asked the students to be self-reliance.

He said the quality of higher education should be enhanced to ensure a sustainable growth of the country's development.

RU vice-chancellor Professor Muhammad Mizanuddin, while addressing the programme, urged the students to play a leading role in the economic advancement of the country.

Among others, Rajshahi law maker Fazle Hossain Badsha, RU pro-VC Chowdhury Sarwar Jahan, eminent economist Professor Sanat Kumar Saha and Mostafa Kamal Juberi addressed the programme, which was presided over by RU economics dept chair Professor Mohammad Ali.