

Skill in English essential for career development: workshop

Staff Correspondent

THE Department of English of the Bangladesh University on Sunday organised a workshop on English language as a soft skill for career development.

The workshop, held in the capital, was conducted by two lecturers Subarna Selim and Sababa Manjur.

They highlighted the importance of increasing vocabulary and using correct spelling in writing and pronunciation as a soft skill in English for career development.

BU vice-chancellor in-charge presided over the workshop. He said the workshop would help the participants to build a successful career in future.

The participants were awarded certificates on the completion of the workshop.
