A MAGISTRATE court in Sylhet on Tuesday accepted the charge sheet in the case filed in connection with an attempt to murder college girl Khadiza Akhter Nargis.

The court also sent the charge sheet to the chief metropolitan magistrate court for 'framing charges against her attacker.

An order to this effect was sent to the CMM court, said public prosecutor Mahfuzur Rahman.

Additional chief metropolitan magistrate Ummé Sharaban Tahura set November 29 for hearing on the charge sheet,' he added.

Earlier on November 8, Harun-Ur-Rashid, Shah Paran, Police sub-inspector and also investigator of the case, submitted the charge sheet to the court against the lone accused, Badrul Alam, a BCL leader of Shahjalal University of Science and Technology unit.

Badrul, also a fourth year economics student, attacked Khadiza, a second year student at Sylhet Govt Women's College, soon after she had come out of her examination centre at Sylhet MC College on October 3.

MC College students rescued the critically injured Khadiza from the spot and sent her to Sylhet Osmani Medical College Hospital. She was shifted to Square Hospitals in the capital the next morning as her condition had deteriorated.

Khadiza's uncle Siddik Ali registered a case with Shah Paran police against Badrul on October 4.
