Rival students clash at Gazipur, BIT closed sine die

From Our Correspondent

GAZIPUR, June 21: Bangladesh Institute of Technology (BIT) at Gazipur was closed sine die and all the examinations were suspended following series of clashes between two groups of students today.

The students used bombs, sticks and knives resulting in injury to 30 students. Of them five were admitted to Gazipur Sadar Hospital and others at different hospitals in Dhaka.

The clashes took place as a consequence of injury to a Chhatra Dal leader last night. Chhatra Dal Convener Alt Akbar was stabbed by some students in the canteen last night.
