

Teacher jailed for sexually harassing student

Staff Correspondent · Sylhet

A MOBILE court in Sunamganj sentenced a school teacher to six-month imprisonment on Tuesday for sexually harassing a Class X female student of a school of Jamalganj upazila.

The convict has been identified Mostafa Rakib Bhuiyan, 27, assistant teacher of that school, and son of Riaz Ahmad of village Joyshree of Dharmapasha upazila.

Jamalganj police officer-in-charge Atiqur Rahman said that they arrested Mostafa following a written complaint filed by the victim.. According to the victim's allegations, Mostafa made sexual advances on her.

In the last week, he also beat up the girl's uncle as he filed a complaint with the school managing committee in this regard and expelled her from the exam hall on Sunday during her pre-test exams.

The OC said that they produced Mostafa before the court of upazila nirbahi officer and executive magistrate Taslima Ahmad Poly.

The executive magistrate handed down verdict and asked the police to send him to jail.
