

DU admission processes begin today

DU Correspondent

ONLINE admission processes for the first-year honors courses of Dhaka University under 2016-17 academic sessions would begin today and continue till September 7, said a university press release on Sunday.

DU vice-chancellor AAMS Arefin Siddique would inaugurate the admission process at central admission office of the university at 10:00am, the press release said.

'Ka' unit applicants are required to have GPA 8, 'Kha' unit applicants need GPA 7, 'Ga' unit applicants need GPA 7.5, and 'Cha' unit applicants need GPA 6.5 combining SSC and HSC results for applying to the university.

According to the decision of the academic committee, 'Ka' unit admission tests will be held on October 21, 'Kha' unit tests will be held on September 23, 'Ga' unit tests on September 30, 'Gha' unit tests on October 28, and 'Cha' unit tests on October 1 (drawing) and September 24 (general knowledge).

Aspirants are asked to visit www.admission.univd-haka.edu for detail information.