

38 to vie for a seat in RU admission tests

RU Correspondent

AROUND 38 students will contest for a seat in the upcoming admission tests for first year honours courses under 2016-2017 academic sessions of Rajshahi University.

A total of 1, 78,959 students will take the tests against 4,712 seats under 9 units, said RU deputy registrar (academy) AHM Aslam Hossain.

Admit cards would be available on the university website at www.ru.ac.bd from October 16, the deputy registrar said, adding that, seat plan would be mentioned in the admit card.

Tests of B and D units will be held on October 24, tests of C and H units will be held on October 25, tests of A, G and I units will be held on October 26 and tests of E and F units will be held on October 27.

Aspirants have been asked to visit the university website for any other information regarding the tests.