

RU STUDENT KILLING

Roommate sent to jail

RU Correspondent

MONIRUL Islam, roommate of recently murdered Rajshahi University student Motaleb Hossain Lipu, was sent to jail on Sunday in the murder case.

A third year student of botany department of the university, Monirul was shown arrested three days after he was detained in connection with the murder, said Ashok Chawhan, investigation officer of the case.

Motaleb Hossain Lipu, a second year student of RU mass communication and journalism department, was found dead in a drain beside the dining hall of Nawab Abdul Latif Hall of the university on Thursday morning.

Lipu's uncle Bashir Mollah filed a murder case with Motihar Police Station at night, accusing unidentified people.

Hours after the case filed, police detained two guards of the hall and two students of the university including Monirul.

Later, they released the guards and one of the detained, Dilip Ray, after primary interrogation.

Meanwhile, protesting at the killing of Lipu, teachers and students of mass communication and journalism department of the university gave a seven-day ultimatum to the law enforcers to find out the killers. //
