

7th JU butterfly fair to be held tomorrow

JU Correspondent

THE 7th butterfly fair will be held on Jahangirnagar University campus tomorrow.

Professor Md. Monwar Hossain, chair of zoology department and convener of the fair, announced the programme at a press conference at JU Journalist Association office on Wednesday.

JU zoology department, in association with Daffodil International University and Prokriti O Jibon Foundation, will organise the fair.

The fair committee has chalked out elaborate programmes, including a rally, a painting competition for children, photography exhibition, butterfly display, debate competition on Butterfly and Eco-Tourism, documentary exhibition on Butterfly and its Habitat, and prize giving ceremony.

JU vice-chancellor Professor Farzana Islam will inaugurate the fair in the morning.

Among others, JU pro-VC Professor Abul Hossain, treasurer Professor Abul Khair, Biological science faculty dean Prof Abdul Jabbar Hawlader, DIU vice-chancellor Professor Yousuf M Islam, IUCN-Bangladesh country representative Istiak Uddin Ahmed, and Prokriti O Jibon Foundation chairman Mukted Mojumder Babu, are expected to attend the programme as special guests. //