President for strong supervision of university students

United News of Bangladesh
Dhaka

PRESIDENT Abdul Hamid on Wednesday asked the authorities of the country's universities for strong supervision of their students so that they can keep pace with the progress in science and knowledge of the contemporary world.

The president came up with the call when newly appointed vice-chancellor of Bangladesh University of Professionals Maj Gen Md Salahuddin Miaji made a courtesy call on him at Bangabhaban.

President Abdul Hamid also directed the new VC to undertake motivational programmes involving teachers, students and guardians so that students are not attracted to any type of militant activity.

Salahuddin expressed gratitude to the president for appointing him the BUP VC.

He apprised the president of the activities and future plan of the university.

Secretaries concerned to the president office were present.
