Message

I am happy to know that the 4th Convocation of Uttara University is going to be held on 05 January 2016 at Bangabandhu International Conference Centre in Dhaka.

On this auspicious occasion I would like to extend my heartiest congratulations to the graduating students, their parents, the members of faculty and the management of Uttara University.

Our government has adopted a modern, scientific and time-befitting Education Policy and enacted Private University Act 2010 to ensure the quality of education. We have been striving hard to achieve a self-sufficient, progressive, highly professional and skilled nation by 2021, the Golden Jubilee year of our independence by giving topmost priority to education.

The fresh graduates, I hope, with their acquired knowledge, skill and commitment will definitely be able to face the challenges of the present century and thus contribute immensely to build a prosperous Bangladesh as dreamt by the greatest Bangalee of all time, Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

I wish the 4th Convocation of Uttara University a grand success.

Joi Bangla, Joi Bangabandhu
May Bangladesh Live Forever.

I am pleased to know that Uttara University is going to celebrate their 4th Convocation on 05 January 2016. Convocation is the culmination in the education process at the tertiary level that acknowledges the success and prosperity.

Universities are the main sources of producing capable human resources. I hope the authority of educational intuitions will put their best efforts to provide quality educations for the sake of the nation. The Government of Bangladesh has given importance equally to the public universities as well as to the private universities. It is a matter of great joy that Uttara University has been showing a great performance in human resources development with high moral standards. I hope that all the universities will take necessary steps to impart quality education for the establishment of a knowledge-based society and enlightened citizenry.

I wish the convocation a grand success.

I extend my heartiest congratulations to the students graduating through the 4th Convocation of Uttara University. Today's event is a milestone in your life as well as for the University. I congratulate the parents and guardians along with the faculties, staffs and officials of the university, who made enormous sacrifices to support and encourage their wards through these years.

I am confident that Uttara University, with its highly qualified and dedicated faculty, equipped with the latest in knowledge and technology, has prepared the graduates well to face any challenges that lie ahead. You should never forget the sacrifices that your parents, families and the society made to bring you up to where you are now.

Once again, I congratulate this year's graduates and my best wishes for all of you in the future.

It gives me immense pleasure that Uttara University is going to celebrate its 4th Convocation on 05 January 2016. I extend my heartiest congratulations to the graduating students and all the participants. Today's event marks another milestone in the short history of Uttara University.

Uttara University has been playing a very important role in the field of higher level of education in Bangladesh by imparting quality education at affordable tuition. It may be mentioned here that the University has been meeting satisfactorily all the requirements of the Government and UGC in order to maintain the quality standard.

At this auspicious moment, my advice to the graduating students would be to proceed further with the valuable education they received here in Uttara University. The outside world is full of challenges and difficulties. But I am sure you are amply prepared to overcome all obstacles and challenges. You can go forward to win the laurels of success. I would urge upon all of you not only to work towards your self-improvement, but also to pay back to the society that has fostered you all along.

I hope the graduates will be able to successfully contribute to the growth and development of the economy which will enhance the image of Bangladesh at home and abroad.

Wish you all the very best.
