

Citizens spit on Badrul's photo, demand his speedy trial

Staff Correspondent · Sylhet

BANGLADESH · Manabdhikar Sangbadik Commission held a rally in front of the Central Shaheed Minar, in Sylhet city on Tuesday, demanding speedy trial of Badrul Alam, attacker of Sylhet Government Women's College student Khadiza Akter Nargis.

People of all walks of life participated in the programme and demanded the capital punishment of the attacker.

They expressed their hatred of Badrul spitting on his photograph.

Addressing the rally, speakers urged all to raise their voice against the attack on Khadiza to resist repetition of such brutality in the society in future.

District Awami League general secretary Asad Uddin Ahmad, district Bangladesh Nationalist Party general secretary Ali Ahmed, Workers Party central committee member Sikander Ali, Sushasoner Jonno Nagorik's district president Faruk Mahmud Chowdhury, Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust divisional coordinator

Irfanuzzaman Chowdhury, Sylhet Press Club Foundation president Al Azad, Sylhet Press Club vice-president Khasru, journalist Ikramul Kabir and Mukith Rahmani, Sylhet City Corporation councillor Rebeka Begum Renu, Sylhet Women

Chamber president Minara Begum, Rotaract Southeast Asia president Hossain Ahmad Shipan and Acid Santras Nirmul Committee general secretary Jurez Abdullah Gulzar, addressed the rally, among others.

Khadiza's father Mashuk

Miah, and brother Shahin Ahmad also attended at the programme which was chaired by the BMSC president Faysal Ahmad Bablu.

Badrul, a fourth year economics student of Shahjalal University of Science and Technology and assistant general secretary of the university unit of ruling Awami League-backed student organisation Bangladesh Chhatra League, stabbed Khadiza on October 3 to.

Khadiza is now fighting for life at Square Hospital in the capital.

Bangladesh Jatiya Manabdhikar Parishad forms a human chain at National Press Club in Dhaka on Tuesday, demanding better treatment of Khadiza Begum Nargis, who was hacked by a BCL leader, by sending her to abroad. — New Age photo