

Nazrul, Rabindra, Shakespeare carnival held at BU

Staff Correspondent

LITTERATEURS and educationists on Thursday urged the people to uphold the spirits of Rabindranath Tagore, Kazi Nazrul Islam and William Shakespeare to free the society from culture of intolerance.

They also said the three litterateurs had great contribution in the world of literature and people's lives.

They said these at 'Nazrul, Rabindra and Shakespeare Carnival-2016' organised by Bangladesh University on its Mohammadpur campus in the capital, said a press release.

Special guest of the programme poet Asad Chowdhury urged everyone to uphold the spirits of the three poets to free the society from the culture of intolerance.

The carnival programme was attended, among others, by BU board of trustee secretary MA Ghulam Dastagir, acting vice-chancellor of BU Prof Golam Rahman, treasurer Kamrul Hasan, Prof Imamuddin and Prof Ashraf Uddin Chowdhury.
