

Wahiduzzaman made DG of DSHE

Staff correspondent

PROFESSOR SM Wahiduzzaman has been made new director general of Directorate of Secondary and Higher Education, said top education ministry officials.

The appointment order would be issued today, said officials.

Contacted, Wahiduzzaman said that the education minister Nurul Islam Nahid had confirmed his appointment as DG over phone.

'I will join the post after I get the official order,' he said.

DSHE director (college and administration) Wahiduzzaman has been serving as acting DG, as the immediate past DG, Fahima Khatun, retired on July 4. Wahiduzzaman was former principal of Munshiganj Women College and controller of exams of Dhaka Education Board.

DSHE under the ministry of education is responsible for administration, management and control of secondary and higher education including madrassahs and other special types of education.
