CLASSES and academic activities at Chittagong University, Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology and Chittagong Veterinary and Animal Science University resume today after the vacation of Eid-ul-Azha. Residential students of the universities have already started returning to their dormitories. CU deputy registrar (information and photography) Farhad Hossain Khan, CUET assistant registrar Fazlur Rahman and CUET deputy director (public relation and protocol) Khalilur Rahman confirmed this. CU went into vacation on August 31, CUET on September 7 and CVASU on September 5 on the occasion of Eid-ul-Azha. //
