

CUET's 14th founding anniv observed

CU Correspondent

THE 14th founding anniversary of Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology was observed amid festivity on university campus on Thursday.

The celebrations began at 10:00am with a colourful procession followed by rally, discussion, blood donation, tree planting and friendly football match.

CUET vice-chancellor Mohammad Rafiqul Alam presided over the discussion held at the central auditorium where Planning Commission member Abdul Mannan was present as chief guest.

Dean of faculty of civil engineering Professor Hazrat Ali, dean of faculty of engineering and technology Professor Ashutose Saha, dean of faculty of mechanical engineering Professor Mahbubul Alam, dean of electrical and computer engineering Professor Mahmud Abdul Matin Bhuiyan, dean of faculty of architecture and planning Professor Mustafa Kamal were present as special guests.

Acting registrar and member secretary of the 14th university day celebration committee Professor Faruk-Uz-Zaman Chowdhury, CUET Teachers' Association vice-president Professor Shamsul Arefin, officers' association president Mir Martuza Reza Khan, employees association president Mohammad Zamal Uddin, student Parash Chakma, Syed Imam Baker spoke at the program.

The discussion program was conducted by Assistant Professor Rashed Mohammad Murad Hasan and Lecturer Farzana Yeasmin.

Teachers, officials and students of Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology bring out a colourful procession, marking its 14th anniversary, at CUET in Chittagong on Thursday. — New Age photo