

Dhaka College student killed in accident

Staff Correspondent

A STUDENT of the Dhaka College was killed in a road accident in the capital's Motijheel area on Thursday. The victim was identified as Arifur Rahman, son of Abdul Wadud of Comilla; he was a higher secondary student of the college. Witnesses said Arif was riding a motorcycle at the crossing at about 10:00am and suddenly his vehicle hit the traffic island. A bus ran him over after he fell on the road from the motorcycle, leaving him critically injured. Motijheel police assistant subinspector Norman said Arif was taken to Dhaka Medical College Hospital at about 10:30am, where he died from his injuries at about 12:30pm. The victim's family said they would file a case.
