KHA-UNIT Admission test for the first-year honours courses under 2016-2017 academic session of Dhaka University was held on Friday morning.

The hour-long test was held at 73 centres in the city.

DU vice-chancellor Professor AAMS Arefin Siddique, pro-vice-chancellor (academic) Professor Nasreen Ahmad and pro-vice-chancellor (administration) Md Aktaruzzaman, visited different exam centres.

DU VC told reporters that using unfair means during the admission test would result into direct punishment.

A mobile court has been set-up to check irregularities, he added.

This year, a total of 34,606 candidates took the test against 2,241 seats.

Cha unit admission test of the university will be held today.

Admission seekers have been asked to visit the university website at admission.eis.du.ac.bd for further information.
