~~DU employee gets
two-year jail~~

DU Correspondent

A MOBILE court on Monday sentenced an employee of Dhaka University to two years imprisonment for sexually harassing a female student of Sufia Kamal Hall of the university on Sunday night.

The convict was identified as Mohammad Ali, an employee of DU Fazlul Haque Hall. He also worked at the Sufia Kamal Hall laundry.

General students of Sufia Kamal Hall said that Mohammad Ali harassed the student when the female student went to the laundry at the second floor of the administrative building around 9:30pm.

As the victim screamed, the general students heard that and went to the spot.

Later, the students detained Mohammad Ali and handed him over to Shahbagh police around 11:30pm at the presence of DU acting proctor Amzad Ali and the hall provost Prof Nihfar Nahar.

Later, the mobile court sentenced him to two years imprisonment.
