Asian University for Women in Chittagong has announced its admission for fall 2018.

The university has sought application from eligible Bangladeshi students, said a press release of AUW on Wednesday.

AUW follows American styled liberal arts and sciences curriculum and offers majors in the fields of bioinformatics, environmental sciences, economics, public health studies and politics and Philosophy.

Applications for this entry opened on May 30, 2018 and would be closed on June 30, 2018, the release said.

Students, who have taken HSC and other equivalent examinations this year, will be considered as eligible applicants. AUW offers financial aid and scholarships to meritorious students.

Besides, madrassah students will receive full scholarship. Candidates who have applied for the 1st round of admissions in 2018 cannot apply again.

Interested students can apply online through the university website at www.auw.edu.bd.
