Three national professors were given reception by the Dhaka University Alumni Association and Dhaka University Teachers Association on Saturday.

Emeritus Professor Anisuzzaman, Emeritus Professor Rafiqul Islam and Professor Jamilur Reza Choudhury were declared national professors by the government this year.

The noted educationists were given the reception for their invaluable contribution to the education sector at a function at Nawab Ali Chowdhury Senate Bhaban on the Dhaka University campus, said a press release.

The alumni association president AK Azad presided over the function.

Speaking as chief guest, finance minister AMA Muhith congratulated the three national professors.

DU vice-chancellor Md Akhtaruzzaman remembered the noted citizens' contribution and guidance in education, national leadership and tough time of the nation.
