Anti-Corruption Commission distributed education materials with anti-graft slogans among students of Halima Khatun Girl's High School in Barishal on Wednesday, as part of their campaign to prevent corruption and create awareness among the young generation.

ACC's Integrated District Office, in association with Barisal District Administration and District Corruption Prevention Committee, organised the programme.

During the event, 230 bags, 900 khatahs, 720 rulers, and 340 umbrellas were distributed among students of the school.

ACC officials said that they would continue distributing educational materials among students of other schools across the country.

President of District Corruption Prevention Committee Rabeya Khatun presided over the programme where Barisal deputy commissioner Habibur Rahman was chief guest.
