

Seven arrested over question leaks

Staff Correspondent

LAW enforcers arrested seven people on Sunday and Monday for their suspected involvement in leaking question papers of Higher Secondary Certificate examination which later turned out to be fake.

Dhaka metropolitan police on Monday said that they arrested four people for leaking the question papers from the capital's Uttara area on Sunday.

The Detective Branch of police arrested them in a special drive, DMP said.

The arrested were identified as Sheikh Mominul Haque alias Akash, Hasibul Haque alias Sihab, Amitav Barua alias Amit and Sayeed Al Sayaf.

They used to sell question papers through Facebook page, said DMP deputy commissioner Masudur Rahman.

Meanwhile, Rapid Action Battalion in three separate drives arrested three people on Monday.

In Chittagong, the battalion members arrested a youth for leaking HSC exam question papers from South Parua Para area under Anwara in Chittagong early Monday, reports our correspondent in Chittagong.

The arrestee was identified as Md Obaidul Haq, 18, son of Abul Kalam, of Haji Ramjan Ali Bari, South Parua Para in the area.

Obaidul and his friends were selling question papers through Facebook after buying the papers from another gang, said Mimitanur Rahman, senior assistant director of RAB-7.

In Mymensingh, RAB-14 arrested Rony Dhali, 17, son of Abul Khaleq Dhali, of Bhaluka.

RAB in a press release said that Rony was arrested on Sunday night in a drive from Labonkotha area. He was a member of a question leak gang.

In another drive in Tejgaon in the capital, RAB arrested Anwarul Azim, 30, son of Afsar Uddin Ahmed, of Tejgaon along with question papers of different examinations, the battalion said in a press release.
