A SECTION of Dhaka University students on Thursday demonstrated at the campus demanding cancellation of recent affiliation with seven colleges under the university.

Students from different departments of the university, who demonstrated at the base of anti-terrorism Raju Sculpture in the morning, alleged that the students of these seven colleges were taking undue advantages by claiming themselves as students of DU.

They also alleged that while the university has limited capacity to ensure all facilities to its regular students, the situation has worsened after the affiliation.

The protesters brought out a procession that paraded different streets of the campus before staging a sit-in in front of Vice-Chancellor's office also tried to lock the entrance of the office.

Later the university proctor, Golam Rabbani intervened and assured the protesters that necessary steps would be taken to mitigate the crisis.
