EDUCATION minister Nurul Islam Nahid on Sunday said the government will take legal actions against private universities which had failed to fulfill the conditions of conducting their activities under the rules of the Private University Act-2010.

'Some of the private universities are yet to fulfill their conditions as per the act and they have to face legal actions after the stipulated timeframe,' he told the convocation of Central Women University at the Krishibid Institute, Bangladesh in Dhaka.

Chairman of University Grants Commission Professor Abdul Mannan, vice-chancellor of CWC Professor Parvin Hasan and chairman of CWC Trustee Board Kazi Zahedul Hasan, among others, addressed the convocation. Distinguished fellow of Centre for Policy Dialogue Rawnak Jahan was the convocation speaker.

Nahid said that the government had given importance to improving quality of education as well as ensuring universal access of all to education to achieve Sustainable Development Goals.

'You (students) are the future of the country. So, you have to become good citizens by acquiring knowledge to boost the development process for building a prosperous Bangladesh,' he added.
