

IU English dept silver jubilee on Friday IU Correspondent

THE English department of Islamic University will observe its silver jubilee anniversary in Kushtia on Friday. Marking the day, the department authorities have chalked out a two-day long programme, the department chairman professor AHM Aktarul Islam Zillu said Tuesday afternoon. A discussion programme will be held at Birshrestha Hamidur Rahman Auditorium of the university on the opening day. University vice-chancellor M Harun-Ur-Rashid Askari is expected to attend the programme as the chief guest while pro-vice-chancellor M Shahinoor Rahman, treasurer M Selim Toha, former IU vice-chancellor Faez M Serajul Hoque and the founder chairman of the department M Mustafizur Rahman will attend as special guests.