JU journalists stage demo

JU Correspondent | Published at 02:00am on October 29, 2018

Campus journalists of Jahangirnagar University besieged the administration buildings on the university campus at Savar in Dhaka on Sunday, demanding punishment of some leaders and activists of the JU unit of Bangladesh Chhatra League who allegedly beat up a journalist on the campus on September 24.

The victim, Mahmudul Hasan Shohag, is the campus correspondent of an online news portal and a 43rd batch student of journalism and media studies department.

Over 20 campus correspondents of different online and print media took part in the protest in front of two administrative buildings of the university in the morning and it continued for several hours.
