RU teacher selected for 'Best Teacher award'

RU Correspondent

MUSTAK Ahmed, associate professor of Rajshahi University journalism department, has been selected the 'Best Teacher' at the International Academic Achievers Award-2018.

South Asia Management Association would confer the award on the journalism professor at an international conference to be held at Munshi Raghunandan Prasad Sardar Patel Mahila PG College Barabanki, Uttar Pradesh, India, in January 27-29.

Munshi Raghunandan Prasad Sardar Patel Mahila PG College Barabanki, in association with the management association, would oraganise the three-day international conference, 'Higher Education Standards and Trends towards Multidisciplinary Studies in the World' for academics, researchers and scholars of Asia.

Governor of Uttar Pradesh Shri Ram Naik, state higher education minister Shri Sandeep Singh, vice-chancellor of Dr Shakuntala Misra National Rehabilitation University Professor Nishith Rai, and vice-chancellor of Dr Ram Manohar Lohia Avadh University Professor Manoj Dixit were expected to address the programme.

Professor Mustak Ahmed was nominated for the award for his outstanding contributions in mass communication and journalism.

Professor Mustak Ahmed said, 'I am very happy to be recognised as the best teacher of the year. This is a matter of great pride for me as well as the university'.