Results of PEC, JSC today

Staff Correspondent | Published at 01:11am on December 24, 2018

The government is going to publish the results of Primary Education Completion, Ebtedayee, Junior School Certificate and Junior Dakhil Certificate examinations today. Results of these examinations will be handed over to the prime minister Sheikh Hasina today at 10:00am at Ganabhaban where she is also scheduled to inaugurate the National Textbook Festival.

Free textbooks will be distributed among the students on January 1 next year, said education ministry officials.

The date of these two programmes — declaring the results of the examinations and observing the textbook festival — have been brought forward due to the next general elections scheduled to be held on December 30, they added.

Education minister Nurul Islam Nahid and primary and mass education minister Mostafizur Rahman will hand over the summary of the results to the prime minister at Ganabhaban.

After that education minister will hold a press briefing at the secretariat around 12:00pm and the primary and mass education minister will hold another press briefing at the secretariat at 1:00pm to publish the results.

This year total 30,95,123 candidates sat for the Primary Education Completion and Ebtedayee exams between November 18 and November 26 and total 26,70,333 students sat for Junior School Certificate and Junior Dakhil Certificate exams between November 1 and November 15.

The results would be known from the websites of the ministries.
