At least three students were injured in a clash between two factions of Bangladesh Chhatra League at Government Haji Mohammad Mohsin College on Thursday.

Witnesses said that the clash ensued between the AJM Nasir group and Tinu group at noon over the annual sports programme.

Three students sustained minor injuries during a chase and counter-chase took place between the two groups, they added.

Abul Kalam, officer-in-charge of Chawkbazar police station, said that police brought the situation under control.
