At least 10 members of left-leaning student organisations were injured as Bangladesh Chhatra League activists attacked a procession brought out at Chittagong University on Tuesday demanding re-election to Dhaka University Central Students' Union.

Protesting at irregularities in DUCSU elections held on Monday, the left-leaning students brought out the procession at CU Shaheed Minar in the morning and demanded re-election to DUCSU and resignation of DU vice-chancellor.

At least 10 female students were assaulted during the attack.
