

Monday, June 17, 2019

NEWAGE

Daffodil Univ Alumni hold reunion in New York

Staff Correspondent | Updated at 12:35am on June 17, 2019

Ambassador and permanent representative of Bangladesh to the UN Masud Bin Momen, Daffodil group chairman Sabur Khan and CEO Mohammad Nuruzzaman together with guests and alumni pose for a photo during Daffodil Alumni North American Reunion in New York on Saturday. — Press Release

The Daffodil International University Alumni North American Reunion-2019 was held in New York on Saturday.

The event was held with a river cruise from the Skyport Mariana towards the Statue of Liberty, said a release on Sunday.

More than 200 Daffodil alumni along with their family attended.

UN permanent representative of Bangladesh and ambassador Masud Bin Momen attended the event as chief guest while Daffodil Family chairman Md Sabur Khan, its chief executive officer Mohammad Nuruzzaman, and chief operating officer Mohamed Emran Hossain were present among others.

DIU Alumni Association president Ziaul Haque Sumon conducted the programme.

The aim of the reunion was to build a global network of the alumni living in different countries to contribute to the development of Bangladesh, the release added.