University of Asia Pacific (UAP) held its 9th convocation on Wednesday at Bangabandhu International Conference Center, says a press release.

Deputy Minister for Education Mohibul Hasan Chowdhury conferred degrees on the new graduates. According to the UAP authorities, 1,151 graduates and post-graduates have been awarded degrees.

He congratulated graduates and advised them to utilise their education for the betterment of the country. He also told students to not be busy with studies only, but also engage themselves in extra-curricular activities in order to achieve the required qualities needed to become world leaders.

Bishwo Shahitto Kendro founder Prof Abdullah Abu Sayeed, University Grants Commission Chairman Prof Kazi Shahidullah, UAP Board of Trustees Chairperson Monzoor Ahmed Chowdhury, UAP Vice Chancellor Prof Jamilur Reza Choudhury and UAP pro-VC Prof MR Kabir were also present at the convocation ceremony, among others.

Two students were awarded the Chancellor's Gold Medal and 80 were awarded the Vice-Chancellor's Gold Medal.
