At least eight leaders and activists of Gournadi Government College branch of Bangladesh Chhatra League were injured in a factional clash on the campus in Barishal on Sunday afternoon.

Sabbir Hossain, Razu, Sajal and Jarif, who are the followers of college BCL leader Arif Mia, and Manik Bapari and Emon, who are the followers of another faction led by upazila BCL leader Sagar Sardar, were hurt during the clash.

Two pedestrians were also injured during the clash that started at about 12 noon.

Among the injured Manik Bepari was send to Barishal Sher-E-Bangla Medical College Hospital.

The factions got into the clash to get control over the college and adjacent areas, said local people.

Gournadi police station officer in charge Golam Sarwar said a police team went to the campus and sent badly hurt Manik to hospital. No case was filed.
