Laws underway to make pry education compulsory

KHULNA, Nov 13 (BSS) : State Minister for Education, Nitai Roy Chowdhury, has disclosed that necessary laws would be enacted to make primary education compulsory.

He said this while receiving donations from students of Khulna Shishu Biddalaya for Pathakali Trust Fund at a function held at the school premises on Friday.

The function was addressed, among others, by Vice-President of Bangladesh Teachers Association Federation Kazi Faruk Ahmed and Deputy Commissioner, Khulna, Abul Muktadir Chowdhury.

Mr Roy said the vast majority of the children of the country, who have been termed Pathakalis and are deprived of education, would be provided with education through this Trust Fund.

Later on, he attended the 20th anniversary of Haji

Mohammad Mohsin College and the prize distribution ceremony of Bhashani Biddhapith at Khalispur. In his speeches, he reiterated government determination to make the educational arena free from all sorts of anarchy and violence so as to ensure healthy atmosphere in the campus.

He also visited Afluddin High School and Jameya Islamia Dakhil Madrasah at Daulatpur.
