

Thursday, September 26, 2019

NEWAGE

Five injured in BCL factional clash

Our Correspondent . Jashore | Published at 12:00am on September 26, 2019

A Chhatra League activist beats a fellow during a factional clash at the Jashore University of Science and Technology on Wednesday. — New Age photo

At least five student of Jashore University of Science and Technology were injured in a clash between two groups of Bangladesh Chhatra League activists on Wednesday.

The university vice-chancellor Anwar Hossain said some outsiders including a former student carried out attack on the university's students at its main entrance at around 1:30pm.

Injured students — Elias Hasan Roky, Kamrul Hasan Shihab, Ashik Khandaker, Jewel Rana and Ruhul Kuddus — were rushed to Jashore General Hospital and university medical centre.

Witnesses said the clash erupted over posting of abusive comment about a girl on Facebook.

NEWAGE