

Sunday, September 29, 2019

NEWAGE

Workshop on businesses incorporating technologies held at BUET

Staff Correspondent | Published at 12:00am on September 29, 2019

Institute of Appropriate Technology director Mohammad Arif Hasan Mamun, among others, attends a workshop on Competitive Business Plan Integrating Modern Technologies in Light Engineering Sector held at BUET in Dhaka recently. — Press release

A two-day workshop on 'Competitive Business Plan Integrating Modern Technologies in Light Engineering Sector' organised by Institute of Appropriate Technology of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology, held on the university campus in Dhaka recently.

Light Engineering Business Promotion Council of commerce ministry sponsored the event, said a release.

Participants at the workshop included entrepreneurs, engineers, technologists and managers from various engineering industries and enterprises of the country.

Teachers of different departments of BUET as well as experts from public and private organisations attended the workshop as resource persons.