

RU registrar resigns amid protests

RU Correspondent

RAJSHAHI University acting registrar Professor MA Bari has resigned from his post amid allegations of corruptions.

On Wednesday, Bari submitted his resignation letter to vice-chancellor professor M Abdus Sobhan, citing physical illness, said syndicate member Abdul Alim.

He said that the vice-chancellor accepted the resignation letter at an emergency meeting held at his residence on Thursday.

However, Bari could not be reached for comments despite repeated attempts over the phone.

Earlier, on December 10, the education ministry's

Secondary and Higher Education Division, in a letter asked the vice-chancellor to take necessary steps to release the acting registrar for his non-cooperation in an investigation of the University Grants Commission.
