DIU declares COVID-19 waiver of Tk 22cr for students

Staff Correspondent | Published at 01:00am on January 07, 2021

Daffodil International University has announced 'COVID-19 special waiver' of Tk 20 crore with an aim to help students during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The university has decided to give students the waiver in the form of scholarship besides its regular scholarship of 25 categories, said a press release.

Only students of the bachelor's and master's programmes who registered in the spring-2021 semester will get the waiver.

Students must have to fill up an online application form for the waiver and must have to complete registration for the Spring-2021 semester before applying.
