Homecoming day observed at Southeast University

Staff Correspondent | Updated at 12:17am on January 17, 2021

Southeast University organised an online discussion on Thursday marking homecoming day of Bangladesh's founder Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

Southeast University vice-chancellor AFM Mafizul Islam presided over the programme where Association of Private Universities of Bangladesh chairman Sheikh Kabir Hossain, also chairman of the Fareast International University Board of Trustees, was chief guest.

Southeast University Board of Trustees chairman Md Rezaul Karim was guest of honour and its Board of Trustees adviser ANM Meshquat Uddin delivered welcome speech.

Among others, registrar, deans, chairmen and directors of various departments, teachers, officials and students of SEU were present at the programme.
