Leaders and activists of the ruling Awami League's student wing Bangladesh Chhatra League assaulted a leader and an activists of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal, student wing of main opposition Bangladesh Nationalist Party, on Rajshahi University campus on Monday afternoon.

The injured ones are RU JCD joint-convener MA Taher Rahman and member Jakir Rezoan.

Witnesses said that a group of JCD Leaders including Taher and Jakir had been gossiping at their organisation's tent at the university's Shaheed Intellectual Memorial on Monday afternoon.

At about 5:30pm, a group of 10 to 12 BCL men led by Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman hall unit president Kabiruzzaman Ruhul and Shaheed Suhrawardy Hall unit vice-president Sakhawat Hossain Shakil attacked the JCD activists, leaving Taher and Jakir injured.

Taher and Jakir are now undergoing treatment at Rajshahi Medical College Hospital.

RU Chhatra Dal convener Sultan Ahmed Rahi told New Age that the BCL activists, directed by RU BCL president and general secretary, carried out a sudden attack on their activists, when they went to the campus for academic purposes.

He said that several leaders of the party were injured while two of them were seriously injured and were admitted to RMCH.

BCL leaders Kabiruzzaman Ruhul and Sakhawat Hossain told New Age that they heard that Chhatra Dal men were planning to make the campus unstable and that they went there to resist them.

‘It is our duty to resist any of the chaotic activities on the campus. That is why we drove them out of the campus’, said Sakhawat.

RU BCL general secretary Faisal Ahmed Runu said that the Chhatra Dal activists were trying to gather on the campus in the name of gossiping and BCL activists had just resisted them.
