NSU offers waivers for spring semester

Staff Correspondent | Published at 01:05am on February 09, 2021

North South University has waived 20 per cent of the total fees in the spring semester in 2021.

The university waived all student-activity fees, including library fee, computer lab fee and other fees, and 10 per cent of the tuition fees, said a press release.

The total waiver of the fees amounts approximately to 20 percent.

The university also offers special scholarship to the students who lost their parents during the COVID-19 crisis.
