Residential halls of polytechnic institutes to be reopened

United News of Bangladesh . Dhaka | Published at 10:21am on February 18, 2021

Residential halls of polytechnic institutes will be reopened ahead of semester finals scheduled to begin from February 22.

But only 60 per cent students will be allowed to stay in the halls, education ministry's technical and madrasah education division took decided on Wednesday.

The authorities concerned have been ordered to ensure that health guidelines are properly followed. Teachers and students have to wear masks, use hand sanitiser and maintain physical distancing.

Finals of the second, fourth, sixth and eighth semesters of diploma in engineering are scheduled to start from February 22.

The exams will be held maintaining proper health guidelines.
