Gono Bishwabidyalay organised a discussion and cultural programme to celebrate the 24th founding anniversary and University Day at Savar in Dhaka on Saturday.

At the discussion, the university trustee, Zafrullah Chowdhury, said that if at least one person in each village in Bangladesh could be educated, it would be beneficial to build the university.

He also announced the completion of the construction of two hostels for the students before the silver jubilee celebration of the university next year.

Zafrullah said that professor Anisur Rahman was the main visionary behind the establishment of the university. Anisur Rahman wanted to establish a new Santiniketan in the country, he said.

The university acting vice-chancellor professor Md Abul Hossain presided over the event while trustee board member Shirin Parveen Haque, treasurer professor Md Sirajul Islam, registrar Tasaddek Ahmed, IQAC director professor Laila Parveen Banu, professor Mansoor Musa, and Gonoshasthaya Kendra chief executive Manjur Qadir Ahmed were present, among others.

Earlier in the morning, Zafrullah Chowdhury inaugurated the programmes on the campus. He also participated in a tree planting event.

On the occasion, Gono Bishwabidyalay Photographic Society organised a photo exhibition. Besides, a colourful joyous procession was brought to the campus. At the end, a cultural event was held.
