

Professor Sazzad Hossain, dean of the Applied Science and Humanities Faculty of the Rajshahi University of Engineering and Technology, on Sunday joined as acting vice-chancellor of the university.

He was appointed to the vacant post until a new VC is appointed for conducting routine administrative and financial activities. Professor Sazzad had joined the then Bangladesh Institute of Technology, Rajshahi as lecturer in physics department in 1994 after obtaining BSc (honours) and MSc degrees from the Department of Applied Physics and Electronics of Rajshahi University in 1986 and 1987 respectively.

Born at Khordo Gojail village in Ullapara upazila of Sirajganj in 1965, he also obtained his PhD degree in 2009.