Monday, October 03, 2022

NEWAGE

DIU hosts English Olympiad

Staff Correspondent | Published at 01:24am on October 03, 2022

The Department of English at Daffodil International University holds a press conference on English Olympiad at 71 Milonayoton of Daffodil Education Network at Dhanmondi in the capital on Sunday. — Press release

The final round and prize giving ceremony of the English Olympiad Bangladesh 2022 organised by the Department of English at Daffodil International University will be held at Daffodil Smart City on October 7.

It was announced at a press conference at 71 Milonayoton of Daffodil Education Network at Dhanmondi in the capital on Sunday, said a press release.

The Olympiad was arranged for the third time with the motto 'show your English talents, go for greater challenge' to make youth as competent global citizens to take lead in international activities.

This year, 977 students were registered over 70 institutions, including secondary and higher secondary educational institutions, across the country.

It was also informed that Md Sabur Khan, chairman, board of trustees at Daffodil International University will grace the award giving ceremony as chief guest.

In the grand finale, the winners will receive Tk 50,000, Tk 30,000, Tk 10,000 respectively for the top three positions.

Professor AMM Hamidur Rahman, dean of faculty of humanities and social science, Liza Sharmin, associate professor and head of the Department of English, Nahid Kaiser, convener, Rabeya Binte Habib, co-convener of English Olympiad Bangladesh 2022 and Md Anowar Habib Kazal, senior assistant director (public relations), DIU, among others, spoke at the press conference.