Institutional Quality Assurance Cells of North South University, Independent University, Bangladesh and United International University have recently jointly organised a virtual workshop titled Online Odyssey: From Delivering Content to Designing Interactive Teaching and Learning.

Advance HE, UK, a leading global expert in teaching and learning enhancement and leadership development, facilitated the workshop, said a press release.

Kathy Wright, assistant director of Advance HE, UK, gave a brief presentation on how both teachers and students were doing in the pandemic.

A large number of faculty members of the three universities took part in the highly-interactive event. It was the first time that Advance HE, UK conducted a workshop in Bangladesh.
